About This Game

It's a new bromance from ancient Greece: when cunning Pelias orders the hero Jason to steal the Golden Fleece from the land of Colchis.

Jason turns to another hero for help - Hercules!

Together they build a ship and guide it through the treacherous seas to reach their destination, all the while struggling against the unknown enemy onboard.

To succeed, the heroes will need to chop down the giant Sacred Oak (oops), defeat the guardian dragon, steal the Fleece, and find out who is behind all of this.

Can they do it?

Solve puzzles, find your way through numerous portals, and build and repair objects...
You never know what the next Ancient Button will do...

Features:

- Stunning full HD graphics with 5 puzzles, 5 bonus levels, and 1 super bonus level.
- A new story with both easy play and challenges for those who dare...
- Build the Argo and set sail!
- Learn the difference between Orpheus and Morpheus!
- Throw something precious into a volcano!
- Discover Jason's true love!
- Make your heroes a team to win.
- Put together a winning team for your heroes!
- Steam trading cards, backgrounds, wallpapers, smiles and other bonus stuff! (once they will be available)

Game Information

12 Labours of Hercules: Fleecing the Fleece Platinum Edition is a Strategy game that developed by JetDogs Studios & Zoomout Games and published by JetDogs Studios.

The seventh chapter of the game's series. Previous installments as follows: "12 Labours of Hercules;" "Cretan Bull;" "Girl Power;" "Mother Nature;" "Kids of Hellas" and "Race for Olympus."

Unlike, the other game from this series. This is the fourth game to be labeled as a platinum edition.

Game Visuals

I want to mentioned that the visuals in the game is well done. The visuals can be adjusted in the game's option menu.

Game Audio

I want to mentioned that audio for the game is well done. Even though the audio is somewhat simplistic and repetitive. The audio can be adjusted in the game's option menu as well.

Gameplay

This is a strategy game, where careful planning is required, due to limited amount of resources that are available.

There are three game difficulty modes to choose from: Relaxed; Casual and Expert. The difference between these game difficulty modes: timer speed and scoring. In relaxed mode there is no timer and scoring. In casual mode, there is a timer and scoring, but the timer is slow to drain and scoring is low. In expert mode, there is a timer and scoring, but the time drains rather quickly and scoring is much higher.

The star and score rating depends on couple of factors: How fast the level was completed. How much resources are leftover. This only applies to the casual and expert mode. The star rating system: Three Stars (Gold;) Two Stars (Sliver) and One Star (Bronze.) There is an opportunity to replay all the levels for better scoring and star rating.

There are a few special bonuses: Freeze Time; Worker Movement; Worker Speed; Additional Worker and Addition Resources. All of these special bonuses has a time limit. But they can be used once the bar has been filled up. These bonuses are extremely useful when the game is being played on expert mode.

There are twenty-three different achievements that can be unlocked from playing the game. Each of these achievements does come with some requirements that needed to be completed before they can be unlocked.

Miscellaneous

There is an extra feature included in the game: Wallpapers. There are six different wallpapers; they can be accessed through the game's main menu screen.

There are seven different trading card to collect. The game only drop four of those trading cards. There are several ways to get the rest of the trading cards: Purchased from the Steam,s Community Market; Trade with friends; Booster Packs and its' Booster Pack Creator.

Final thoughts: I have found the game enjoyable to a certain extent. The replay value for the game is low. I would recommend this game, but not at the game's full price value.
